Season's Top Picks

Discover the best Certified Organic produce of the season

Potatoes, Broccoli and Carrots

from the Benson Brothers at BioFarms, TAS

Tasmania's premier Certified Organic growers

Located in the small village of Forth, they are renowned for producing season's best potatoes, broccoli and carrots for most of the year. BioFarms operates with a deep commitment to sustainability, soil health, and organic farming principles. Their potatoes and carrots, grown in mineral-rich soils, are packed with nutrients and their broccoli thrives in the region's cool climate, developing a crisp texture and vibrant green colour that speaks to its superior quality. A taste of Tasmania's best with every bite.

Royal Gala & Mini Issaq Apples

from Androssan Orchards Batlow, NSW

The crispiest apples in NSW

Nestled in the heart of the alpine region surrounding Batlow, the Androssan Orchard was founded in 1956 by David Cathels. The operation is now managed by David's son Ian, with a substantial portion of their orchards now Certified Organic. They bring decades of experience and knowledge in cultivating and delivering the highest quality apples. Our pick at the moment are their fantastic new variety 'Issaq'. Crisp like a Jazz apple with a tangy flavour – these little gems are a perfect addition to your kiddy's lunch boxes.

Jumbo Pomegranates

from Stratchan Orchards in Renmark, SA

Pomegranates bursting with flavour and antioxidants

From the sun-drenched orchards in Renmark, South Australia, Stratchan orchards are known for their Certified Organic exotic fruit over the warmer months. Now in autumn their spectacular Jumbo Pomegranates take centre stage. Hand-picked at peak ripeness, Stratchan Orchards' pomegranates are a season delight, perfect for fresh snacking, juicing, or adding a refreshing crunch to salads and desserts.
